IMPORTANT NOTES & UPDATES

What an exciting three days this has been! Your children are beautiful, funny, smart, and of course, we love them already! As we strive to establish routines in the coming days, the following should help all of us:

*Kindergarten boys do not have to wear belts. Whew!

*Beginning on Monday, the students will need to report to the lunch room if they arrive before 7:45. You may still walk them to the classroom if it is 7:45 or later. By the end of the week, let's try to drop them off from the morning carpool line. If there is a problem, let us know.

*Please send all monies in an envelope labeled with your child's name and the purpose of the money.

*Please sign The Daily Report (yellow bound book) every night.

*Naptime begins on Monday...make sure your child has a nap mat. Thanks!

Classroom Needs:

Thanks parents for sending in supplies...You Are the Best!

CURRICULUM NOTES

Religion

It is very obvious to us already that you as parents have planted the spiritual seeds in your children- their faith is alive and growing!

Language Arts

We will begin our new reading series next week! Look for a parent note to go home the first of the week. It will help you be aware of what we are working on in the classroom.

Math

Our first unit of math will be in sorting and classifying. This is an important and often neglected skill which strengthens critical thinking.

Science/Social Studies

Our first unit of study in the Social Sciences will be a "Self Study". To promote good self esteem and awareness, we will complete a "Me" book and participate in many activities.
